Transcriber's Office

January 21, 1998 LB 897, 898

people in Texas or wherever it is will put up a flag "Don't Tread On Me" and they're cowards have to do everything in a mob. No, I'm the one who says, don't tread on me. That's the kind of situation we faced, and things have not changed in this country. Things have not changed in this state, but I'm going to do everything I can to help change this nation. You and I must make it happen, and we're going to start slow and work our way on up. This motion to kill this bill is a means to gain time to talk, but I don't intend to pursue the motion. And at this point, Madam President, I withdraw that kill motion.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. The motion to indefinitely postpone has been withdrawn. Senator Schimek announces that the following guests are visiting the Legislature. Paul Cohan is here and Laura Tomaka from Lombard, Illinois. Paul is the Publications Manager and Laura is the Policy Analyst. They are both members of the Council of State Governments, and they are here and if any senators would wish to visit with them about the Council of State Governments and the opportunities that are available to senators, they are standing under the north balcony. Will you please recognize them. Welcome to the Nebraska Legislature. The Chair recognizes Senator Coordsen to close.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Madam President. I would move for the advancement of LB 897 to Select File. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Chair...the question before the body is the advancement of LB 897. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the advancement of LB 897.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: LB 897 advances. LB 898.

CLERK: (Read title.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Chair recognizes Senator Coordsen to open.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Madam President. As the Clerk indicated, this bill repeals six sections of statute that had a
